

RWFM 101 EXPLORE RANGELAND, WILDLIFE AND FISHERIES MANAGEMENT

Blaze a trail in natural resource management!

JOIN US!

This captivating introductory, in-person course (1 hr) is designed to unlock the world of possibilities within Rangeland, Wildlife and Fisheries Management! Explore Texas A&M University through gaining a deeper understanding of campus resources.

This course is also designated as a Hullabaloo U (FYX) experience.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Build community in the department.
- Explore the spectrum of careers available in the natural resources field.
- Master the art of creating a standout professional resume and cover letter.
- Collaborate with like-minded peers.
- Learn how to prioritize and study effectively to excel in your coursework.
- Engage in a service project and/or explore how to give back to the Brazos Valley.
- Articulate goals to support your future plans.
- Explore campus resources.

HAVE QUESTIONS?

Contact Dr. Melissa Shehane
melissa.shehane@ag.tamu.edu