KEY TOPIC AREAS

- Firearm use—applications in hunting, safety protocols, handling and care.
- Standards of practice related to fair-chase hunting, as they relate to ethics and laws.
- State and federal laws and regulations governing the take and management of resident and migratory game species.
- Economic impact hunters have on local, state and national economies connected to active management for all wildlife species.
- The process to procure wild food, its handling in the field, processing into familiar cuts and culinary creations as table fare.