

RWFM 322

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND SUSTAINABILITY

This course (3 hrs) will cover ways to solve local sustainability issues through collaborative partnerships with varied stakeholders in communities.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Dr. David Matarrita Cascante
David.Matarrita@ag.tamu.edu

Key Topics include:

- Analyzing how communities operate in order to address local sustainability issues
- Understanding the role of different community actors in addressing local sustainability issues
- Learning how to determine community conditions, assess needs, and propose courses of action using different sources of information
- Learning tools that can help you work with different community actors in search of promoting sustainable practices

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
Rangeland, Wildlife
& Fisheries Management